

Supporting the 1 in 5 adults who are survivors of childhood sexual abuse (CSA) to transcend trauma and lead their fullest, healthiest lives.

Mission: Building systems of support for adult survivors of childhood sexual abuse (CSA), combining in-depth health expertise with the healing power of community.

Vision: Healthy lives, relationships and communities for all.

There are several ways to get involved:

Join our Board of Directors

Ideal candidates are those who:

- Have lived and/or professional experience
- Represent diverse backgrounds and who bring specific expertise in the following content areas: cultural responsiveness / trauma-informed practice, scalability, philanthropic development, advocacy, mental / behavioral health, legal, business, communications and non-profit finance management
- We welcome candidates who may or may not be from the Denver Metro area.

Join our Advisory Council

Ideal candidates are those who:

- Leaders in our community who understand the importance of Wings' mission and wish to support and endorse our efforts
- Have schedules that may not accommodate direct Board service
- Provide vital input on subject matter expertise, community connections, cultural responsiveness expertise, letters of support and/or other counsel on a very time-limited basis

Our volunteer leaders are thoughtful, committed, grounded and strategic change-makers. We seek to align with more leaders of this caliber who represent the diverse backgrounds of the adult survivors and loved ones we serve and seek to serve.
